Mexico City probably would be established today by means of the new station at Chapultepec installed by General Carranza.

Famine conditions in the capital are described by a Red Cross report received today, dated July 1. It says more than 100,000 women on the previous day applied to the international committee for food tickets. Only 40,000 were available.

"Where formerly 200 people a day went to the slaughter house to get the blood that is saved and given away," the report says, "there are now 2,000 daily besieging the gates. Near there, the other day, many people were seen struggling to get pieces of a dead horse."

The report continues:

"Infants in arms are given food entirely unsuited to them and the rate of infant mortality consequently is very high. The adulteration of flour and other foods and the limitation of the coarser and poorer foods are causing much stomach trouble."

"The vastness of the misery already manifested makes the task of relief almost hopeless. From interviews with those who have been working at the problem for weeks past, all of the relief they can give is but a touch of what needs to be given."

LOYD-GEORGE IS AMERICAN BEACHES TAKING HAND IN WELSH STRIKE

Minister of Munitions Interests Himself Actively in Conditions in Wales Coal Producing Area.

(By Evening Herald Special Wire) London, July 19, 1915. (12:54 p. m.)—David Lloyd-George, minister of munitions, has at last taken a hand in the South Wales coal strike and announced his intention of going to Cardiff tonight to have a talk with the men. This announcement was made shortly after it became known that new proposals had been advanced which apparently offered good prospects of settling the strike.

Mr. Lloyd-George is very popular with the miners and it is thought a direct appeal from him will have a greater effect than any other influence.

A conference between the executive committee of the miners and Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade, has been arranged for tonight, but was made unnecessary by the action of Mr. Lloyd-George. The meeting has been cancelled, although some members of the executive committee already had started from Cardiff for London when Mr. Lloyd-George's intervention was announced.

He made his escape from the concentration camp on May 11 and walked across France. He took a ship to Avonmouth, whence he walked to London, earning enough money on the way to obtain food by doing odd jobs. He was destitute and exhausted when he reached here.

The American relief committee offered to pay Mr. Peay's way home but says he can obtain work here and prefers to pay his own expenses.

(By Evening Herald Special Wire) Washington, July 19.—X. Weinshenk of Bellevue, Iowa, arrested here last week by secret service men after he had written several letters to the White House, was transferred today from the observation ward of a hospital to the government hospital for the insane on the report of two alienists that his mind was affected. He may be released later on a favorable report of the alienists or may be held for trial up to his sanity.

Weinshenk conducted the International Information Bureau here and mailed to a list of thousands of names propaganda for the German cause and against the export of war munitions to the allies.

The Southwestern Dryery and Food company has started suit against Emiliano Ladero of Sandoval county and his wife, Luisa Ladero, to recover $7,000 and interest of 5 per cent from November 5, 1914, under an alleged note. The note is alleged to have been secured by a mortgage deed. Luisana F. Lee is counsel for the plaintiff.

Two hundred troops under Col. Cardenas constituted the attacking force. The fighting lasted only a short time. All saloons and gambling houses were ordered closed and all being destroyed. Most of the saloon proprietors are Americans driven out of business in Arizona by prohibitory laws.

Twenty-five carloads of silver lead and gold bullion were shipped today from Nuevo Laredo to Elizabethport, N. J., to a refining plant. Another twenty-five carloads are expected to be exported through Nuevo Laredo this month.

An offer of 35 cents for Mexican silver dollars brought out an unexpected supply.

Philip, the Macedonian King, while drowning with wine was trying a case and the prisoner after sentence was pronounced, exclaimed, "I appeal." And to whom do you appeal?" inquired the astonished monarch. "I appeal from Philip drunk to Philip sober," replied the prisoner, and the king granted the request and at a hearing gave the prisoner his liberty.

ANNUAL MEETING OF AMERICAN PLOWMEN

National Farmers' Union Renders Unselfish Service to Agriculture.

By Peter Radford.

The National Farmers' Union will hold its annual convention in Lincoln Nebraska, on September seventh, and will round out the eleventh year of its activities in the interest of the American plowman. When that convention is called to order every farmer in America should pause and bow his head in honor of the men gathered there to render a patriotic and unselfish service to agriculture. That organization, born in the cotton fields of Texas, has grown until geographically it covers almost the whole of the United States and economically it deals with every question in which the welfare of the men who have their backs to the sun are involved. It has battled for a better marketing system, rural credits, cheap money, diversification, scientific production, agricultural legislation and has carried on its work of education and co-operation in season and out.

The Farmers' Educational and Cooperative Union of America brings the question of organization squarely before every farmer in this nation. Without organization the farmers can neither help themselves nor be helped by others and through organization and systematic effort all things are possible.

The farmers of the United States contribute more and get less from government than any other class of business. They have better securities and pay a higher rate of interest than any other line of industry. They market more products and have less to say in fixing the price than any other business and they get more political bungling and less constructive legislation than any other class of people. The farmers can only acquire such influence in business, in government and in economics as will enable them to share equitably the fruits of their labor through organization and every farmer on American soil who desires to help himself and his fellow plowmen should rally around the Union.

POLITICAL GOSSIP

When one class of people has anything to say, it has become largely the custom to make a political issue out of it instead of a friendly discussion, to print it in a law book instead of a newspaper and to argue it before a jury instead of to settle it in the higher courts of Common Sense. As a result political agitators, political lawyers, political preachers and masculine women are powerful in politics and dissension, selfishness, intolerance and hysterics run rampant in public affairs, for when the low, damp, murky atmosphere of misunderstanding envelops public thought it breeds political reptiles, vermin, bugs and lice which the pure air of truth and the sunshine of understanding will choke to death.

We have too many self-appointed interpreters of industry who are incapable of grasping the fundamental principles of business and who at best can only translate gossip and add color to sensational stories. No business can stand upon order and might rules—right or wrong. No industry can thrive upon misunderstanding, for public opinion is more powerful than a King's sword.

When prejudice, suspicion and class hatred prevail, power gravitates into the hands of the weak; for demagogues thrive upon dissension and statesmen stink upon strife.

The remedy lies in eliminating the middleman—the political gossip—and this result can be accomplished by the managers of business sitting around the table of industry and talking it over with the people. Interchange of information between industries and the people is as necessary to success in business as interchange in commodities, for the people can only rule when the public understands. Away with political interpreters who summon evil spirits from their prison cells and loose them to prey upon the welfare of the people in the name of "My Country."

And to whom do you appeal?" inquired the astonished monarch. Today's War
Summary

G. W. STRONG IN AN AUTO CRASH IN LOS ANGELES ON FRIDAY

The Italian armored cruiser Giuseppe Garibaldi has been torpedoed and sunk in the Adriatic. It was an American submarine, it is officially reported from Vienna. The destroyed warship, which displaced 2,743 tons and had a complement of 350 men, was laid down seventeen years ago.

New disputes from Athens result in fighting on Gallipoli peninsula with the forces of the entente allies attacking along the whole front. The attacks are said to have been successful, but there is no definite news as to the extent of the ground reported to have been gained.

Related disputes from the Russian front tell of the recent concentration of great Austro-German forces on thecombe line between the Vistula and the Bug. It is here that severe pressure is now being put by Field Marshal von Mackensen upon the Russian forces in the great Tannenberg move against the armies of Grand Duke Nicholas which has brought forth simultaneous attacks all along the front from the Baltic provinces to Bessarabia. Russia's army opposing General von Mackensen is declared to be one of the best she ever put into the field.

President Wilson has returned to Washington for conferences at which the raty of the United States to the latest German note on submarine warfare will be taken up.

Paris reports two attacks by the Germans, both of which were repulsed. One of these was in the vicinity of Soissons and another in the region of St. Mihiel in the Argonne. There were only outpost encounters in Lorraine and artillery play in French trenches in Belgium. Inactivity prevailed along the remainder of the front.

The south Wales coal strike is believed in London to be on the verge of settlement. David Lloyd-George will go to the coal fields to use his influence with the men for a settlement.

MOTORCYCLISTS ARE BACK FROM CHAUTAUQUA

The boys of the Albuquerque motorcycle club returned Sunday from Minnehaha.

The trip was an interesting one, being spiced with plenty of gullies and spills, but the hearty welcome received from the Chautauqua people more than made up for all real trouble.

The boys started for Minnehaha Friday and returned Sunday, bringing back with them a high regard and a soft spot in their hearts for Minnehaha and the Chautauqua people.

Lackawanna, N. Y.—"After my first child was born I felt very miserable and could not stand on my feet. My sister-in-law wished me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it works like a charm. I do all my own work."—Mrs. W. A. Breckinridge, homemaker, a widow, 31, of New York, who was driving her 12-year-old girl and a boy, 10, in the older car, were thrown into a ditch, hitting on the pavement on their heads. Another little girl in the car was injured internally. Each driver claimed the other was to blame according to the Times.
